Best Practices

1. Admission Process: Admission is through an entrance test.
2. Awards on Founder's Day: Best students in academics, sports, and other activities are recognized annually.
3. Title of the Practice: Honoring meritorious students and best teachers.
4. Objectives: To motivate both students and teachers to perform at their best.
5. Context: Students and teachers are key to the institution's success. Therefore, the college honors class toppers, top performers in sports and cultural activities, and outstanding teachers.
6. The Practice: Information about the top students in each class and exceptional achievers in sports, cultural activities, and teachers with international recognition or awards is gathered. These individuals are honored on Founder's Day.
7. Evidence of Success: Many students have secured top positions in the university merit list.
8. Problems and Resources: No significant challenges; the resources required are minimal.
9. Impact: The practice has led to improved student performance.
